

BEECHWOOD KIDS PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Beechwood Kids (BK), the children's ministry of Beechwood Church, provides relevant, age-appropriate learning and connection opportunities for kids, birth through 5th grade. Beechwood Kids is dedicated to partnering with parents to help raise children to have a strong relationship with Christ.

The Beechwood Kids Director will lead our Sunday morning services and support Wednesday evening programs (GEMS, MVP), as well as any special events and programs we may have throughout the season (MOPS, Summer Camps, Life Groups, etc.) This role will work with volunteers to provide ministries for kids during regular adult worship experiences. If your passion is to see kids and families grow in their relationships with Christ and with each other, let's talk!

Beechwood Kids Director works closely with the Lead Pastor and staff to identify and lead a volunteer team and implement strategies to draw more families to church through BK programs. They will also be responsible for moving forward the overall church goals and the specific goals related to a successful children's ministry.

When you join the Beechwood staff, you won't be just a new hire—you'll be a leader we can't wait to empower, a learner we can't wait to teach, and a follower of Christ we can't wait to grow alongside. You're taking back ground for the Kingdom. You're embracing your leadership potential. You're following God where only He can take you. You're becoming the person God is calling you to be. Are you ready to lead and laugh, play and inspire the next generation? Are you ready to bring your skills to life at Beechwood Church?
